PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Cultural Diversity Day: CAFCI, in partnership with the Village of Royal Palm Beach and the Palm Beach Cultural Council, celebrates Cultural Diversity Day on Saturday, May 7, 2016. This is a special day where people from varying backgrounds come to celebrate our different customs and culture. I am inviting you to come out and be a part of this celebration. Please volunteer an hour of your time to staff the CAFCI booth to give information about our organization and attract potential new members. Please see flyer in this publication for a list of diversity day activities.

Relay For Life: Special thanks to Nova Brown and all the members of her Relay for Life team who worked tirelessly to continue our participation in raising funds for Relay for Life. As usual, CAFCI members, friends and supporters stepped up to make this happen. Special thanks to everyone who contributed food, refreshments, time, entertainment, materials and supplies for this event. Thanks to everyone who contributed money to help us reach our goal of $3,500. And thank you to Boy Scout Troop 111 for your enormous contribution. We are still in the process of finalizing our reports and we will report to our members how much was raised.

Student Assistance Fund: We are still accepting contributions for our student assistance program. The award ceremony will be held on Saturday, May 14, 2016 at the original Wellington Mall. Our applications are up this year and the candidates are overwhelmingly qualified, making the selection process a lot more challenging with the funds we have available.

President

those of you who came out to support the event, I hope you had a good time and the memories of Relay 2016 will linger long in your minds. As usual for me, the luminaria ceremony was the highlight of the evening. This year we raised over $3,000.

Thank you to my awesome committee members, Elaine Ealy, Winsom Genus-Martin, Alvin Nembhard, Genieve White and Yvonne Wright for a job well done. CAFCI Relay would not have been a success without you.

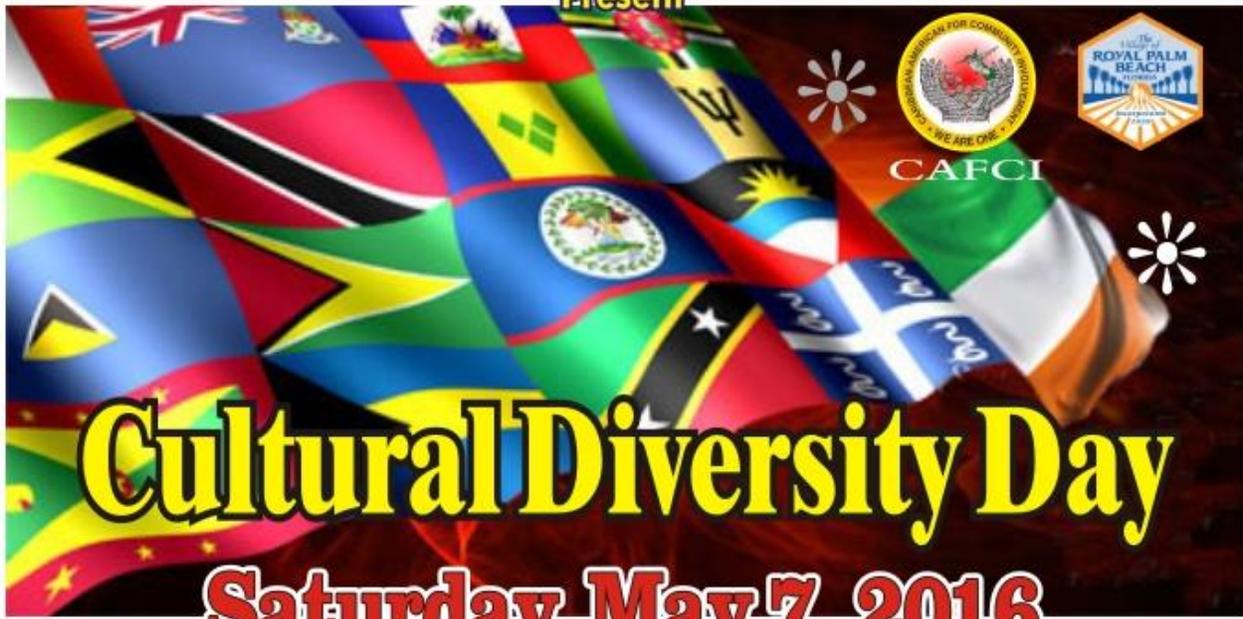

Boy Scout Troop 111 was very visible throughout the whole event. They also helped CAFCI walk laps around the track and tear down our tents. Thank you to all the scouts for your willingness to help.

OUR CHILDREN ARE OUR FUTURE... VAFMSF AWARDS PRESENTATION

CAFCI's Boy Scout Troop 111 hosted their Annual Fundraising Banquet, "Evening in the Woods," on Sunday, April 24th. The Royal Palm Beach Cultural Center was transformed into a campsite in the woods, complete with camp food, camp songs, camp skits, wooden campfires on each table and to top it all off, eclectic home-made desserts were auctioned off.

The Vivian A. Ferrin Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee presented eagle scouts David Ademczyk, Jr., Johnathan Germain and Patrizio Spagnardi III with the annual VAFMSF award and scholarship for $1,000 each.

David Ademczyk, Jr., Patrizio Spagnardi III,
Johnathan Germain

David Ademczyk, Jr. attends FAU High School and will be pursuing a degree in Mechanical Engineering at the University of Florida. David feels that scouting has affected him in many positive ways. However, the main thing that he has learned is how to be a leader, it has motivated him to take on any challenge no matter the level of difficulty. He has learned to be unselfish, giving to others and to be helpful those less fortunate than me.

The next award was presented to Johnathan Germain. Johnathan attends G-Star School of the Arts and will be attending Florida State University in the fall majoring in Animation and Digital Arts. For Johnathan, scouting has been a part of his life for the past ten years. It has provided him with many opportunities to learn new things, develop friendships, and to travel to places that he would not otherwise have been able to go. Scouting has given him a sense of responsibility and independence; taught him leadership skills, the importance of being prepared and planning ahead, and the importance of cheerful service.

Patrizio Spagnardi, who attends FAU High School, has been accepted at Florida Atlantic University and will be majoring in Computer Science and Computer Engineering. According to Patrizio "My scouting experience affects me every day of my life. When participating in group projects at school I am not afraid to speak up and take a leadership role using the skills I learned in the troop. I always do my best to help others in need as a continuation of what I have done in scouting."

Special thanks to CAFCI members who were in attendance and to CAFCI for chartering Troop 111.
